In addition to traditional camp activities such as crafts, sports and swimming, children and teens participate in group discussions and creative activities led by professional counselors and trained volunteers.

2 sessions are offered:

TEEN PHOENIX

Teen Phoenix is an overnight retreat for teens, ages 14 to 18 grieving the death of someone close. This retreat offers an emotionally safe atmosphere in which peer groups, art therapy, memory projects, and other activities help teens confront their loss, express their grief, and receive support from other teens who are grieving. This format gives teens the freedom to feel independent while addressing their grief needs in an age-appropriate and mature manner.
